BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Prayer isn't about...

Prayer isn't about saying the perfect words—it's about drawing near to the heart of God.

These prayers aren't meant to be read once and forgotten.
Return to them often.

Pray them when you wake up. Pray them before bed. Pray them while you're driving, waiting for an appointment, or when another negative test leaves your heart aching.

Some days you'll need to pray the prayer for healing. Other days you'll find yourself praying for peace, speaking to the mountain, or thanking God before you've seen the breakthrough.

Don't rush through these prayers. Read the Scriptures. Pause. Worship. Listen for the Holy Spirit. If a particular prayer speaks to your heart, pray it again tomorrow... and the next day... and as many times as you need.

Most importantly, don't let these prayers replace your own conversation with God. Let them become a starting place—a way to stand on His Word, strengthen your faith, and remind your heart of what is true.

As you pray over your womb, remember this: the power is not in these words. The power is in the God who hears them.

With love,
Elisha

PRAYER FOR HEALING

Poppa God,

You are good, and every good and perfect gift comes from You. Thank You that You never change. You are still Jehovah Rapha—the Lord who heals—and nothing is too difficult for You.

Thank You that through the finished work of Jesus, You have provided healing for me. Your Word declares that by His stripes I have been healed, and today I receive by faith what Jesus has already provided. I choose to stand on Your Word, not my feelings, not a diagnosis, and not what I can or cannot see.

Father, thank You that my body belongs to You. I speak life over my womb, my ovaries, my uterus, my fallopian tubes, my hormones, and every part of my reproductive system. I declare that every part of my body is coming into alignment with the way You created it to function.

In the authority You've given me through Jesus Christ, in the name of Jesus, I command sickness, inflammation, disease, cysts, endometriosis, fibroids, scar tissue, hormonal imbalance, and every assignment of the enemy to leave. They have no authority over my body because I belong to Christ.

Holy Spirit, help me keep my eyes fixed on Jesus. When fear rises, remind me of Your promises. When doubt whispers, strengthen my faith.

I praise You because You are my Healer. I will continue to trust You, praise You, and expect Your goodness, knowing that my testimony is still being written.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

PRAYER FOR CONCEPTION

Poppa God,

You are the Author of life, and nothing is impossible for You. You formed Adam from the dust, knit each of us together in our mother's womb, and opened the wombs of Sarah, Hannah, Rebekah, Rachel, and Elizabeth. You are still the God who creates life. Today, I ask You for the miracle of conception.

Father, I ask that You would breathe life into our longing to become parents. Let the moment of conception take place according to Your perfect will. Bring together what needs to come together, and let a healthy new life begin.

In the mighty name of Jesus, I speak conception over our future. I declare that this waiting season will not have the final word. I call forth life, and I thank You that You are able to do what no diagnosis, no statistic, and no human effort can accomplish on its own.

I thank You that You already know our future son or daughter. Before we ever hold this child, You know them, You love them, and You have a purpose for their life.

Fill my heart with faith as I wait. Help me to praise You before I see the positive pregnancy test, trusting that You are faithful to complete every good work You begin.

Thank You for hearing my prayer. I receive Your peace, I receive Your hope, and I receive Your joy with expectant faith.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

PRAYER TO SPEAK TO THE MOUNTAIN

Poppa God,

Thank You for the authority You've given me through Jesus Christ. Your Word says that if we speak to this mountain and do not doubt in our hearts, but believe that what we say will come to pass, it will be done. So today, in the mighty name of Jesus, I speak to every mountain standing between me and the child I have been praying for.

Mountain of infertility, be moved.

Mountain of recurrent pregnancy loss, be moved.

Mountain of delay, be moved.

Mountain of fear and discouragement, be moved.

Mountain of sickness and disease, be moved.

Mountain of impossibility, be moved.

I command every scheme of the enemy, every lie, and every obstacle that has exalted itself against the knowledge of God to bow to the name of Jesus. You will not have the final word over my life or my future.

Father, I choose to magnify You instead of my mountain. I believe that what is impossible with man is possible with You. I refuse to let fear be louder than faith or circumstances become greater than Your promises. I declare that Jesus Christ has the final word. I will continue to believe, continue to pray, and continue to thank You until I see the breakthrough.

Thank You that You are fighting for me, making a way where there seems to be no way, and working even when I cannot yet see it.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

PRAYER FOR PEACE WHILE I WAIT

Poppa God,

Thank You that You are my refuge and my strength. Even when my heart feels weary and my mind is filled with questions, You remain faithful. Your peace is not dependent on my circumstances, and I thank You that I can rest in You today.

Father, I give You every fear, every anxious thought, every disappointment, and every burden I've been carrying. When I begin to worry about the future, remind me that my life is in Your hands. When the passing days begin to overwhelm me, remind me that You are not limited by time.

In the mighty name of Jesus, I take authority over every spirit of fear, anxiety, hopelessness, and discouragement. You have no place in my mind or my heart. I choose to believe what God says instead of what fear tries to tell me.

Holy Spirit, guard my heart and my mind. Fill me with the peace that surpasses all understanding. Help me to keep my eyes fixed on Jesus instead of my circumstances, and teach me to trust You one day at a time.

Today, I choose faith over fear, peace over panic, and hope over despair. I believe that You are working, even when I cannot see it. I receive Your peace, and I rest in the confidence that You are always with me and You are always faithful.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION

Poppa God,

Thank You that You are my Protector. You are my refuge, my fortress, and the One who watches over me day and night. I can rest knowing that nothing escapes Your notice and that You hold my life securely in Your hands.

Today, I place my womb under Your loving care. I ask that You would surround it with Your protection and let Your hand rest upon me. According to Your Word, I pray that none would miscarry or be barren (Exodus 23:25-26), and I thank You that You are faithful to every promise You have spoken.

In the mighty name of Jesus, I declare that every assignment of the enemy against my womb, my future pregnancies, and my future children is broken. No weapon formed against me shall prosper, and every plan of the enemy to steal, kill, or destroy must bow to the name of Jesus.

I plead the blood of Jesus over my womb and over every child You entrust to me. Let Your angels encamp around me, and let Your peace drive out every fear. I choose to trust in Your protection instead of living in anxiety.

Thank You that You are watching over me even when I cannot see what You are doing. I rest in the confidence that You are my Defender, my Shield, and my ever-present help.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

PRAYER FOR MY FUTURE CHILD

Poppa God,

Thank You that before my child was ever conceived, You already knew them. You know the number of hairs on their head, the days of their life, and the purpose You've created them to fulfill. What a comfort it is to know that my future child is already known and deeply loved by You.

Today, I lift my future son or daughter before You. I pray that from the very moment life begins, Your hand would be upon them. Protect them, strengthen them, and let them grow according to the beautiful design You have for them.

I pray that my child would come to know Jesus at an early age and walk closely with You all the days of their life. Fill them with wisdom, courage, compassion, and unwavering faith. May they love what is good, stand firmly on Your Word, and bring glory to Your name in everything they do.

Father, prepare my heart and my husband's heart to be the parents You've called us to be. Teach us to raise our child in love, to point them to Jesus, and to create a home filled with Your presence, Your peace, and Your truth.

Thank You for the gift of this precious life. I receive them by faith, trusting that You are writing a beautiful story that is far greater than I can imagine.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING & EXPECTATION

Poppa God,

Thank You for hearing every prayer I've prayed over my womb. Thank You for every promise in Your Word that reminds me You are near, You are faithful, and nothing is impossible for You.

Today, I choose to thank You before I see the breakthrough. I praise You because You are good, Your Word is true, and Your power has not diminished. Though I have not yet seen the answer, I believe You are working in ways I cannot yet see.

Father, I choose to live with expectation. I believe that You are making a way where there seems to be no way and that what is impossible with man is possible with You. Strengthen my faith to keep believing, my heart to keep hoping, and my lips to keep praising.

I surrender every fear, every timeline, and every unanswered question into Your hands. My hope is not in a test result, a treatment, or a doctor's report. My hope is in You, not in my circumstances, not in statistics, and not in man, but the Author of life.

Thank You for being my Healer, my Peace, my Protector, and the Giver of every good gift. I will continue to worship You, trust You, and expect great things from You, knowing that You are always faithful.

In the mighty name of Jesus, amen.
